HOTEL REVENUE MANAGEMENT

Executive Performance Report

Consulting-style synthesis inspired by Deloitte / McKinsey reporting standards

Executive Summary

The hotel portfolio delivered EUR 15.82M in revenue with +8.86% growth, ADR Index of 104.67%, occupancy of 61.45% and gross margin of 61%. Performance remains above market pricing levels while preserving strong profitability.

Revenue	EUR 15.82M
Growth	+8.86%
Occupancy	61.45%
ADR Index	104.67%
Margin	61%
Gross Profit	EUR 9.67M

Key Findings

Strong revenue growth, premium pricing power and high profitability. Suites generate the largest revenue contribution while OTA dependency remains high.

Strategic Risks

Occupancy remains below optimization targets and OTA channels account for approximately 72% of bookings.

Recommendations

Increase direct bookings, improve occupancy during low-demand periods, expand upselling of premium room categories and maintain dynamic pricing discipline.

Final Conclusion

The portfolio is financially healthy, competitively positioned and profitable. Future value creation should focus on occupancy optimization and direct-channel growth to maximize long-term profitability.
